

PICNIC IN DOUBLE—Getting ready for a day of contests, food and fun are these members of the South Bay Mothers of Twins Club and twins. They are (left to right) Mrs. H. B. Harmon with Paul and Michael, Mrs. Joseph Narr with Cynthia and Carrie, and Mrs. William Zimmerman with Michael and Anneli.

Twins' Mothers Club Slates Annual Picnic

The South Bay Mothers of Twins Club will hold its fourth annual picnic July 9, beginning at 11 a.m. at El Retiro Park, Hollywood Riviera in Torrance.

Approximately 200 children are expected to attend. Picnic chairmen are Mrs. E. W. Baumgardner and Mrs. Robert Gerns.

During contests, children will be judged in categories of most identical girls, most identical boys, most identical girl and boy, most unlike girl and boy, most unlike girls, and most unlike boys.

The judges, each of whom is a twin, are Karin Hedstrom; William Waterman and Miss Jane Donelson.

Opening the event will be a "get-acquainted" coffee hour at 11 a.m. At this time free coffee will be served and members registered. During the coffee hour prospective members and guests will be entertained.

Admission to the picnic will be one dozen of home-made cookies.

With the start of picnic time at noon, free ice cream will be served. Each child will be given a toy. Games for adults and children alike will be played.

Membership information can be obtained by calling Mrs. Gordon Anderson of Palos Verdes Estates.

YEAR-ROUND BLOOM

Chrysanthemums can be bought in full bloom 12 months of the year in California, enjoyed in the house and then set out in the garden for future color. If you buy a blooming chrysanthemum this month, you can coax a second bloom out of it this fall.

Group Sponsors Birthday Party For Youngsters

The much-awaited monthly birthday party for the children at Harbor General Hospital will be held July 6 at 2 p.m. Entertainment will be provided by Fred Vasquez accordion players.

Parties are given each month to celebrate birthdays of the children and to give them something to direct their attention towards other than themselves, thus aiding in their progress.

"Volunteers for Children" is a group of women who act as "substitute" mothers for the children.

Each child will receive a gift, but a special gift will be given to each child who has a birthday.

PTA News

The last meeting of the Harbor City School PTA began with the flag salute presented by Den 7 of 743, under the leadership of Mrs. Mary Tielens.

The A-6 graduating class was presented under the direction of Miss Sara Lee Noveno, music teacher. They sang four folk songs and later danced. Mr. St. John, head of the recreational club, presented rope exercises, done by boys of the club.

Mrs. Anders Klungreseter entertained with a baseball skit in a Norwegian dialect.

A plant was given to Mrs. Anders Klungreseter, named the "parent of the month." Mrs. Manuela Matute's class won the prize for having the most parents present.

Close-up Luncheon

Teachers of Harbor City School were feted with a luncheon by members of the PTA board on the last day of school.

Mrs. Avis Creech, principal, expressed her appreciation and wished everyone a happy vacation.

Farewell gifts were presented to Ethyl Von Blankenburg, who will teach in Hawaii; Jean Weaden, who will teach in Los Alamitos District; Vera Newman, who is on sabbatical leave in Europe; Peggy Clark, who resigned on maternity leave; and Kay Woodruff and husband, who will chaperone a group of exchange students in "Seeing America." It was announced Gertrude Crum plans to retire.

A traveling case was presented to Mrs. Avis Creech by PTA board members for her sabbatical leave through Europe.

Hillside PTA Board Meets

Notes written on small sheets of mahogany invited the newlyelected officers of the Hillside PTA to a luncheon and first board meeting at the home of Mrs. Beryl P. Gutridge, President, June 13 at 1 p.m.

The attending officers were: Mrs. Beryl P. Gutridge, president; Mrs. Guy Gates, first vice president; Mrs. William Tyler, second vice president; Mrs. John Derry, third vice president; and Mrs. Herbert McCoy, fourth vice president.

Others attending were Mrs. Gladstone S. Lewis, recording secretary; Mrs. Vincent Esposito, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Robert Kendrick, treasurer; Robert Miller, auditor; Mrs. Fred W. Fields; Mrs. Russell Hanger, parliamentarian.

John W. Strom, principal of Hillside School, was in attendance.

The officers made preliminary plans for the coming year and ratified the board of the various committee chairman.

Junior Court Initiates New Members

Three girls were recently initiated into Junior Court Our Lady of Victory 1344, Catholic Daughters of America.

The girls initiated were Misses Diane Figueras, Palma Morgan, and Linda Hamlin.

Officers and members of the Junior court taking active part in the ceremonies were the Misses Teresa Solomonson, president; Roberta Shannon vice president; Maria Janovec, secretary; and Linda Ryan, reporter. Sportsmanship Chairmanship Donna Ahmann is assisted by Barbara Fox; citizenship, Linda Habeshy; faith, Mary Lou Rehfs.

Junior standards "To Love God, to Serve Others and to Live Nobly" were presented by Donna Dudikoff, Patricia Raso and Christina Walker. Initiating guides were Nancy Barkowski and Diane Clark. Janette Acree, Linda Ste. Marie and Alicia Williams were the color guards. Junior refreshment chairman was Kathy Ehmke, assisted by other members of the court.

NEWLY INSTALLED

Newly installed members, like all prospective Junior members, have been on a three-month probation period to prove their willingness to become active members of the National Catholic Girls' organization.

The Junior program is the offering of the Senior Catholic Daughters of America to Catholic girls. The three-fold program of spiritual, charitable and recreational activities aims to stimulate Catholic ideals, to encourage the habit of service to others, to provide wholesome recreation under Catholic leadership and to contribute to the complete Catholic development of the Junior.

MOTTO

The Junior Motto of "To Be Useful" is practiced in the following activities members of the Junior Court take part in. They include monthly attendance and receiving of Holy Communion every first Saturday of the month, child care for pre-school children during the 9 and 10:15 a.m. Sunday Masses at St. James, the assistance in preparing Confraternity, attending children for First Holy Communion, bake sales, and donations for Pope's Fund.

Preparing Thanksgiving baskets for the needy; attendance at the annual Catholic Daughters of America Mass for Peace, July 4, Memorial Mass in November at St. Vibiana's Cathedral, Los Angeles; ushering of religious at Mary's Hour; Mother-Daughter Tea; Halloween Party for the Juniorette members of Court Our Lady of Victory; Christmas party; Day of Recollection; Archdiocesan Dance; miscellaneous entertainment trips to Disneyland.

(Continued on page 2-C)

Women

Carolyn Perkio ... Women's Editor

★

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Miss Graham Becomes Bride of Bill D. Sims

MRS. BILL D. SIMS
... nee Yvonne Ava Graham

—Photo by Seeman

Wearing a long-sleeved silk organza and lace gown with a chapel train and carrying white carnations in a bridal bouquet, Yvonne Ava Graham became the wife of Bill D. Sims June 17 at an 11 a.m. ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Graham, 2435 Andree Ave., Torrance, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Sims, 2232 W. 236th St., Torrance.

Miss Graham was given away in marriage by her father in the Nativity Catholic Church which was decorated with flower baskets and new ribbons. Father Glynn officiated.

Maid of honor for the bride was Linda Sweet, who wore a dark aqua taffeta gown with a chiffon cummerbund and front flounce. She carried a yellow carnation nosegay bouquet.

Bridesmaids were Madeline Drnek and Barbara Alter, who wore light aqua gowns in the same style as the maid of honor. They also carried yellow carnation nosegay bouquets.

Fred Sims stood up for the bridegroom as best man and Roy Balagad and Gary Cook were ushers during the double ring ceremony.

The bride's mother wore a pink gown and the bridegroom's mother attended wearing a blue lace gown.

Immediately after the service, a reception was held in the Torrance Woman's Club building. The couple departed from the reception for a honeymoon in Northern California.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Sims are both graduates of Torrance High School. The bride attended Mt. St. Mary's College after graduation. Sims is employed by Beneficial Finance Company.

The couple will live at 228th St. in Torrance upon return from their honeymoon.

Council Sponsors Rummage Sale

Mrs. Clarence Turner, president of the Women's Council of St. Philomena Catholic Church, announced at the last council meeting plans for a rummage sale.

The annual sale will be held Friday and Saturday, July 14 and 15, from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. in the school hall at 21900 So. Main St., Torrance. Items to be sold include stoves, bicycles, clothing etc.

Assisting Mrs. Turner will be Mrs. Edward Bernardin, Mrs. William Hopkins and Mrs. Albert Gagne.

Anyone wishing to donate rummage may have it picked up by calling TERNAL 5-7836.

Other events planned in the future by the women of the parish were a dance and a family picnic.

DOUBLE ANNIVERSARY

A double Silver Wedding Anniversary will be held at Lomita Community Baptist Church Sunday, July 9, at 3 p.m. to honor Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hennessey and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Anderson. All friends are welcome, they said.

RUMMAGE SALE preparations are being made by women of the Women's Council of St. Philomena Catholic Church. Pictured are Mrs. E. M. Bernardin, chairman of the sale; Mrs. Clarence Turner, president; Mrs. William Hopkins and Mrs. Albert Gange, community workers. The sale will be held July 14 and 15 from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. in the school hall, 21900 S. Main St., Torrance.

Annual Luau Features Hawaiian Atmosphere

St. Anthony's Council of Catholic Women will hold its fourth annual luau, "Hawaiian Harvest," on Saturday, July 15, in the parish center.

The menu prepared for guests by professional catering service includes roast pig, spare ribs, chicken, fried rice, sweet potatoes, tropical fruit, pineapple slaw, shrimp, all types of sea foods and appetizers.

This event will include a social hour, 7 p.m., dinner, 8 p.m. and dancing to the Aloha Quartet until 1 a.m., according to Mrs. Carl Weber, ways and means chairman.

Mrs. George Branjnikoff, president, urges early reservations as the event will be limited to 100 couples. Reservations may be placed by contacting Mrs. Joe Spera DA 9-3895, or Mrs. George Robinson FA 1-4841, ticket chair-

Others assisting Mrs. Weber are Mmes. Donald Tucker, William Corr, Peter Metzler, Jack Thatcher, Ray Gerald, Edward Miller, Robert Shepard, Manuel Orozco, Glenn Hellman, Thomas Bannan, William Mulvihill, Harry Link, Leland Jansen and W. R. Czaban.

Hawaiian attire is optional but preferred.

FOODS AND DECOR of Hawaii will be in order Saturday, July 15, when St. Anthony's Council of Catholic Women holds its fourth annual luau, "Hawaiian Harvest," at the parish center.

Preparing for the event are (left to right) Mrs. Glenn Hellman, Mrs. Manuel Orozco, and Mrs. Thomas Bannan.